

Mulaqat Express FAQs

How does the Mulaqat Express ticket work?

Your Mulaqat Express ticket will confirm your departure location and departure time window. Each traveller must present both their Mulaqat Express ticket and Didar Access Wristband when boarding.

Do I need a Mulaqat Express ticket to board the shuttle?

Yes. Each person travelling on the Mulaqat Express must have a physical ticket, including children two years of age and younger, who travel free.

Where can I purchase a Mulaqat Express ticket?

Mulaqat Express tickets can be purchased at Lower Mainland Jamatkhana. Tickets will not be sold at Downtown Jamatkhana or at District Jamatkhana.

When should I purchase my ticket?

Tickets are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Departure locations and departure times are subject to availability. Purchase your ticket as early as possible once sales begin.

Are the Mulaqat Express tickets refundable or transferable?

No. Mulaqat Express tickets are non-refundable and non-transferable.

What if I cannot afford Mulaqat Express tickets for my whole family?

Mulaqat Express tickets are $10 per person. If you require financial assistance, please speak with your Jamatkhana leadership. Requests for ticket subsidies will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.

Can I choose my Mulaqat Express departure window?

Yes. When purchasing your ticket, you will select your preferred departure time window, subject to availability.

Why do you have departure times?

Departure times help manage the flow of attendees throughout the Mulaqat Express journey, including departure locations, the Lounge, and the Didar venue. This helps provide a smoother and more organized travel experience.

What if my preferred departure time is full?

Departure locations and departure times are subject to availability. If your preferred option is unavailable, please select from the available options at the time of purchase.

Can I purchase my ticket at one Jamatkhana and depart from a different location?

No. When purchasing your ticket, the departure location is fixed based on where you purchase your ticket.

Can my family travel together?

Yes. Families are encouraged to purchase tickets for the same departure location and departure time window, where possible, so they can travel together. Each traveler, including children two years of age and younger, must have a Mulaqat Express ticket.

Do Caregivers need a Mulaqat Express ticket?

Each Caregiver travelling on Mulaqat Express must have a ticket.

Where do I board the Mulaqat Express?

Go to the departure location shown on your ticket and arrive 20 minutes before your assigned departure time.

Will the Mulaqat Express depart on time?

Please arrive at your designated departure location during the departure time shown on your ticket. Shuttles will depart throughout each departure period.

What happens if I miss my shuttle?

If you miss your assigned departure time, please speak with a Mulaqat Express volunteer. Assistance will be provided based on the remaining shuttle schedule and available capacity; however, alternate transportation cannot be guaranteed.

What if I arrive at the wrong departure location or departure time?

Before leaving for your departure location, please check your ticket to confirm your departure location and departure time. If you arrive at the wrong departure location or outside your assigned departure time, please speak with a Mulaqat Express volunteer. Assistance will be provided based on the remaining shuttle schedule and available capacity; however, alternate transportation cannot be guaranteed.

Can I change my departure time on the day of the Didar?

Please travel during the departure time shown on your ticket. Where operationally possible, volunteers may assist based on available capacity; however, changes cannot be guaranteed.

What does my Mulaqat Express ticket include?

Your Mulaqat Express ticket includes:

- Parking at your departure location
- Transportation from your departure location to the Lounge
- Transportation from the Lounge to the Didar venue
- Transportation from the Didar venue back to the Lounge
- Transportation from the Lounge back to your original departure location
- Refreshments at the Lounge

Can I use the Mulaqat Express for one way only?

Yes. You may use the Mulaqat Express for a one-way journey; however, your ticket includes both your departure and return transportation.

Do the Mulaqat Express shuttles have washrooms?

Some shuttles may have onboard washrooms; however, availability cannot be guaranteed and should not be relied upon during the journey. Washrooms are also available at the Lounge.

Do I have to return to my original departure location?

Yes. You must return to your original departure location unless otherwise directed by a Mulaqat Express volunteer.

Do I need to board a specific shuttle for my return journey?

No. After the Didar, simply board any available Mulaqat Express shuttle returning to the Lounge. From there, you will transfer to the shuttle returning to your original departure location.

Will I have to stand in line while waiting at the Lounge?

No. Upon arrival at the Lounge, you will receive a boarding number. You are free to relax indoors, enjoy refreshments, and move around the lounge until your boarding number is called.

Can I be dropped off or park at the Lounge instead of my assigned departure location?

No. Please do not park at or arrange to be dropped off at the Lounge. Instead, proceed to the departure location shown on your ticket.

Will seniors or attendees with mobility needs receive transportation support?

Yes. Please review the transportation options and mobility and accessibility guidance to determine which option best meets your needs. If you require mobility or accessibility support, please confirm your transportation arrangements in advance.

Are walkers and strollers allowed on the Mulaqat Express?

Yes. Walkers and strollers are permitted on the Mulaqat Express and will be stored underneath the shuttle during travel. Walkers and strollers should be clearly labelled with your name and phone number. Please note that all passengers must be physically able to manage a few steps on the shuttle.

Can I bring a child's car seat?

Yes. You may bring a child's car seat. It will be stored underneath the shuttle during travel and should be clearly labelled with your name and phone number. Car seats cannot be installed on the shuttle.

Can I use the Mulaqat Express if I use a wheelchair?

The Mulaqat Express is suitable for those who are able to safely board and disembark the shuttle by climbing approximately three to four steps. Those who require wheelchair assistance throughout their journey should use the Wheelchair-Accessible Taxi Transportation option.

If I require wheelchair porter support, can I still use the Mulaqat Express?

Yes, provided you are able to safely board and disembark the shuttle by climbing approximately three to four steps. Wheelchair porter support is available at the Didar venue only and is not available at Jamatkhana, departure locations, parking lots, the Lounge, or on the Mulaqat Express shuttle.

Will Wheelchair-Accessible Taxi Transportation be available?

Yes. Wheelchair-Accessible Taxi Transportation is available for those who require an accessible travel option to and from the Didar venue. Transportation is provided through participating taxi companies. Please refer to the Wheelchair-Accessible Taxi Transportation section for participating providers, booking instructions, and additional information.

Can I bring bags, personal items, my phone, and food on the Mulaqat Express?

Please travel light and only bring items you are permitted to keep with you throughout your journey. Before leaving home, please review the "What to Bring" section for information on permitted and prohibited items. Devices are not permitted.

Can I leave my belongings at the Lounge and collect them later?

No. Personal belongings cannot be left at the Lounge. Storage facilities and dedicated security for personal items will not be available. Please only bring items you are permitted to keep with you throughout your journey.

Can I leave the secured area and return later?

Once you have completed security screening, please remain within the secured area unless directed otherwise. If you leave the secured area, you may be required to complete security screening again before re-entering.

What if I lose my Mulaqat Express ticket or my Didar wristband?

Please speak with a Mulaqat Express volunteer. Assistance will be provided based on the ticket verification process.

What if I forget or misplace my Didar wristband? Can I still board the Mulaqat Express?

Please speak to the designated support team or volunteers for guidance. Additional verification may be required.

What happens when I board the Mulaqat Express?

Volunteers will confirm your Mulaqat Express ticket and Didar Access Wristband before guiding you through the boarding process.

Who should I ask for help?

Please speak with a Mulaqat Express volunteer. Volunteers will be available throughout your journey to answer questions and provide assistance.

I don't speak English well. How will I know where to go?

Volunteers will be available throughout your journey to provide guidance. Where possible, multilingual volunteers will also be available to assist.

Where can I find the most up-to-date information?

Please refer to the Canada Visit website, official Visit communications, approved Jamatkhana announcements and WhatsApp Communities, and guidance from designated volunteers.

What should I remember before leaving for my departure location?

Before leaving for your departure location, please ensure you have your Didar Access Wristband, your Mulaqat Express ticket, and any travel information provided when you purchased your ticket. Please arrive on time, travel light, label any items that will be stored underneath the shuttle, and follow volunteer guidance throughout your journey.
